Have You Ever Seen An Angel Cry?

Words & Music by Stan Rogalski

♩ = c. 110

The musical score is written in treble clef with a 4/4 time signature. It consists of eight lines of music, each with a key signature of one flat (F major) and a common time signature of 7/8. The lyrics are written below the notes. Chord symbols are placed above the staff at the beginning of each line. The lyrics are: "Have you ev-er seen an an - gel cry? I did ___ a long time a - go. Far from the ci - ty, in the coun - try-side, In a town that I know. It was-n't pret-ty for - me - to see, An an-gel in - des - pair. It broke my heart - and left a mem-o-ry, that's ling-ered all of these - years. For ma-ny years - this - an - gel tried To tame a wild, wild man, Far from the ci - ty, in the coun - try-side, 'Twas part of heav - en's Plan. But e-vil crept-in as it oft-en does, And men do things - that are less than wise, - It broke my heart - those - ma-ny years a - go, The day I saw an an-gel cry."

Have You Ever Seen An Angel Cry?

Words & Music by Stan Rogalski

Have you ever seen an angel cry?
I did, a long time ago.
Far from the city, in the country-side,
In a town that I know.
It wasn't pretty for me to see,
An angel in despair,
It broke my heart and left a memory,
That's lingered all of these years.

For many years this angel tried
To tame a wild, wild man,
Far from the city, in the country-side,
'Twas part of heaven's plan.
But evil crept in as it often does,
And men do things that are less than wise,
It broke my heart those many years ago,
The day I saw an angel cry!

Have you ever seen an angel fly?
I did some time a-go.
Far from the city, in the country-side,
From a town that I know.
After giving all her love,
She was called home to heaven above,
My heart was full that early day in May,
The day I saw an angel fly!

Have you ever seen an angel cry?
Hmmm.
Have you ever seen an angel sigh?
Hmmm.
Have you ever seen an angel fly?
Hmmm.
I did, some time a-go!
